8. Mayor's Report

Mayor Dillon reported attendance at the Mayors' Association meeting in Metamora. A roundtable discussion was held and Office Assistant Zych, Secretary for group, attended and witnessed the dilemmas facing municipalities regarding challenges common to municipalities such as vacant lots, absentee landlords, going to court to be able to cut grass, clean up. Discussions gave evidence to legal counsel in that we can't go on people's property if someone is living there. This week, the Street Department crew was scheduled to start street sweeping, the sweeper broke and it's in the shop for at least two weeks. In the meantime, arrangements were made to borrow a street sweeper from a sister city which should start on Thursday. Mayor Dillon plans a conversation with Lieutenant Middlemas on speed to enforce limits. Mayor Dillon encouraged council members to advise the officers as well if they see them. Scouts held their ice cream social last week and Mike's Tavern donated the proceeds from its golf outing to the Scouts.

9. Public Comment

City Attorney Connor introduced the newest member of his firm, Missy Brewer.
